

Overview

Chisapani and Nagarkot hike starts with a short drive to Sundarimal from Kathmandu (the capital of Nepal). The real trek starts from Sundarimal by entering into the Shivapuri National park, (Shivapuri-Nagarjun is youngest national park in Nepal). You reach Chisapani after about 5-6 hours trek from Sundarimal through forest.

Chisapani-Nagarkot Trek is available on any time of the year so, you can take this trek on any time of the year. After staying an overnight at Chisapani, you then trek to Nagarkot in next day. The Nagarkot is one of the most popular viewpoints to view the sunrise and sunset over the Himalayas as it is located at the altitude of 2211 meter above the sea level, if weather is good, you see great views of Himalayas including Annapurna, Langtang, Dorje Lakpa, Gauri Shanker, Ganesh Himal and some more.

After spending an overnight in Nagarkot, you hike down to Chagunarayan temple, an UNESCO heritage site that takes about 4 hours. You visit Chagunarayan temple and have lunch then drive back to Kathmandu to end the trek.

Chisapani-Nagarkot Trek is suitable for all-age people. No previous experience is required for Chisapani-Nagarkot Trek. Look at our detail itinerary to know more about the trek and contact us for booking the trek or do let us know if the given proposed itinerary is not suitable for you as we are always happy to offer tailor-make and customize trek to Chisapani and Nagarkot.
